God Loves You Just the Way You Are... and He Will Always Be There for You Becky McKay

God created each of us, and He doesn't make mistakes. No matter what we look like, who we are, or what we have or haven't done, we are more precious to Him than all the stars in the heavens, and He has so many big dreams for our lives. He is always there for us, and whenever we call on Him, we will immediately have His ear and His heart. This book is a touching reminder to never doubt how special we are because God doesn't. For those times when it's difficult to truly believe that He cares deeply about each and every one of us, the hope-filled messages and poems in this book encourage us to have faith in God and in ourselves, to trust Him to provide for us, and to be open to the wonderful things God has in store for the future.
