East and West: A Love Story L. B. Kamal

Leaving California for the sake of her parents, Elaine expects to have very little in common with the East coast financial professionals that are her father's new crowd. A year later, her expectations, and almost everything else, will have changed forever. Inspired by Elizabeth Gaskell's 1855 story of an independent woman in the midst of the industrial revolution in England, this is the story of two people overcoming the prejudices that divide us today.
