This welcome collection is designed for children aged 12-36 months. Each of the 100 daily topics is divided into activities and experiments that enrich language skills, cognitive development, social-emotional development, and physical development. Children explore a variety of captivating themes such as "Physical Me" and "Celebrations" through stories, music, art exercises, and more. A detailed appendix offers a quick, easy reference to a number of helpful tools such as craft patterns, flannel storyboards, sign language diagrams, and reproducible letters home.

Each Daily Plan contains:

- A theme-based topic
- Related "New Words"
- Suggested children's books
- Accompanying songs and chants
- And a variety of activities to capture every child's attention

Packed with ideas and experiences, this generous resource is an invaluable addition to any preschool classroom.
