Not illustrated. 1898 edition. Excerpt: ... CHAPTER XIV. FURTHER REMARKABLE DONATIONS. The more thou spendest from thy little store, With a double bounty God will give thee more. A. A. Proctor. N this chapter a number of other remarkable donations will be found recorded, showing still further how the work is supported. The facts and incidents will be given as far as possible in the donors' or Mr. Müller's own words. "ONE OF THE MOST REMARKABLE GIFTS WE HAVE EVER HAD." This was Mr. Müller's description of the sum of £1, which was received in 1839 from a poor man, with a family of eight and 15s. a week wages. The giver, who was at one time a notorious drunkard, had put by the money out of what was still allowed him by his master for beer. STANDING BY THE PRINCIPLE OF THE INSTITUTION. "I have received a little money from," wrote an old donor to Mr. Müller on a certain occasion. "Have you any present need for the Institution under your care? I know you do not ask, except indeed of Him Whose work you are doing; but to answer when asked seems another thing, and a right thing. I have a reason for desiring to know the present state of your means towards the objects you are labouring to serve: viz., should you not have need, other departments of the Lord's work and other people of the Lord may have need. Kindly then inform me, and what amount, i.e., what amount you at this present time need or can profitably lay out?" Mr. Müller replied, "Whilst I thank you for your love, and whilst I agree with you that in general there is a difference between asking for money and answering when asked, nevertheless in our case I feel not at liberty to speak about the state of our funds, as the primary object of the work in my hands is to lead those who are weak in faith to see that there is...
