Selected poems of Rabindranath Tagore (Chinese Edition) Rabindranath Tagore

Tagore is a distinguished Indian poet, writer, artist and social activist in modern era, who is the first Asian writer to win Nobel Prize. He is considered as a giant of world literature and entitled “Sage of Poetry”, his works are then regarded as “a lighthouse for spiritual life ” that pave ways for Indian modern literature; his creation sets an example for borrowing excellent foreign literature and art and reclaiming new ethical literature and art; his tireless efforts raise the Indian ethnical literature to a higher stage and promise it an assured place in modern world literary arena. This selection mainly includes The Crescent Moon which narrates childhood and joy, as well as Stray Birds which chants love and life. Early in 1920s, the notable scholar and translator, Zheng Zhenduo, introduced both collections into China and now in this book, his refined translation reproduces Tagore’s perfumed spirituality, reviving the prettiest encounter of life and poetry in a fresh way.
