Most people will agree that relationships take work, regardless of whether it's between friends or family or a potential romantic partner. All relationships require prayer, guidance and patience, especially if you're talking about marriage. There's a big difference between a good marriage and a great marriage, and a big part of the difference is choosing the right mate. God has provided a blueprint for the ideal mate for His women in Boaz, that Old Testament prototype of Jesus Christ. Unfortunately, many women would say they ended up with Bozo because they chose to step out ahead of God. Why does this happen? How does this happen? Well, to find the answers you will have to read the book!
