Words can inspire, motivate and change us if we let them. Positive words can lift us to action. The "thought of the day" is a valuable tool for everyone, but especially for teachers counselors, coaches and parents who can communicate a positive message every day. Educators and parents can select a quotation in a matter of seconds and write it in a place that it can be seen or just say it out loud. These compilations of positive quotes are designed to inspire and motivate anyone. By reading one quotation per day, the individual will be given a little extra kick to not only feel better about his or herself, but also to reach his or her goals. This book will help light the fire that one needs to get moving on the path to success. This book will make anyone ready to take on the day with gusto and enthusiasm. All of the proceeds from this book will go to Palm Springs North Elementary School to help students with the purchase of schools uniforms, supplies, materials, ect. Thank you for buying the book.
