Beloved Roxanne Regalado

After having his heart broken by his first love who went with an older guy who is rich and able to provide her needs, Jacob Rafael, a photographer by profession, falls in love with the beautiful Violet Sanders, a famous actress/model/product endorser/business woman who involves herself in charitable causes by helping the poor and needy people and the stray cats and dogs who are taken by a local shelter. Love is indeed grand and it is shown by how he professes his great love for her. He shows his love for her by surprising her in ways that only a man that is truly in love with a woman can do. However things turned to a different way after Victoria Arnaiz, Jacob's first love and ex-girlfriend came back into his life. Now he has to choose between his great love and his first love. Will he choose Violet over his first love? How will Victoria cope with Jacob's past love especially after he told her that she will forever take a special place in his heart? Amidst all the glitz and glamour, challenges, difficulties, busy schedules, the hurt and the jealous competition this book shows that true love still triumphs and endures.
