I Shall Not Die But Live M M Kirschbaum

Because of ignorance, many children of God unknowingly searched out the problems they have today. Their troubles did not emanate from others but through their actions and omissions. In short, they invited them into their domain and are suffering the consequences presently. This is not God's plan for you. It is appropriate therefore, to distinguish when you have stepped into the battlefield with God's banner or with your own banner. If you get into the battle-ground with your own banner, you will fight the battle alone. If you regardless the power of God, you are making rubbish the glory of God. This must not be. We must not limit the Almighty God. As the battle is raging, we must be able to say boldly: "I shall not die but live."
