Cooking for the holidays can be quick and easy with kitchen-ready ways to roast the turkey that spin the bird from start to finish with only a few minutes' work from the cook.

This book has hopeful solutions for enticing school kids to eat breakfast; creating the illusion that you really ARE cooking, so your mom-in-law will stop fussing about how you're feeding her son; feeding latchkey kids good food they'll love when they enter your house, so they'll lay off the sugar and carbs; how to guide a young husband into eating budget meals when he really wants steak; helping a young bride appear to be cooking when she's really an anti-cook; and how to help a widower grandpa with meals and socialization.

ALSO, there's "How to help your whole family to lose weight without going hungry or going on a diet." Our Patty is ready to go to work for you!
